

WHAT DO PEOPLE THINK ABOUT LYNX?

Views from the project region

1,073 PEOPLE

in the project region completed the questionnaire, with most coming from rural areas

40.7%

Almost 10,000 people visited the Missing Lynx exhibition

The project took local farmers to Switzerland and Germany to visit two lynx projects and livestock farmers already living with lynx

Stakeholder Focus Groups are helping guide the project

Forestry

Farming

Business management

Community Group

65.8%

thought it's important that future generations can enjoy lynx in Britain

72%

of questionnaire respondents living in the project region support a lynx reintroduction

71.6% agreed that lynx are important to help balance nature in Britain

64.6% thought a reintroduction of lynx would provide tourism opportunities and related benefits

the Lifeescape
project

Northumberland
Wildlife Trust

The Wildlife
Trusts